

You-Kitchen User Safe Community Guideline

Version 1.0 (May 2021)

Welcome to You-Kitchen,

Our guidelines are based on feedback based on recommendations from experts in areas such as technology, public safety and human rights. To ensure that everyone's opinion is heard & changing frequently, we take extra care in creating our policies to accommodate a wide variety of views and perspectives, especially those from people and communities who might otherwise be overlooked or marginalized.

Authenticity: We want to ensure that the content that users see on You-Kitchen is authentic. We believe that authenticity creates a better environment for content sharing.

Security: Our goal is to make You-Kitchen a safe place. Statements that threaten users have the potential to intimidate, marginalize or silence others. Therefore, they are not allowed on You-Kitchen.

Privacy: We are committed to protecting privacy and personal information. In the context of a secure private sphere, our users can be themselves, decide for themselves how and when to share something on You-Kitchen and network more easily with others.

Dignity: We are of the opinion that all people are equal in dignity and rights. Therefore, we expect them to respect the dignity of others and not to harass or humiliate others.

Our enforcement environment of these standards is based on the information available to us which is given by users. In some cases, this means that we have content or behavior, that violate these standards may not be able to detect.

Our users can report potentially inadmissible content to us. We also give people control over their own online experience by allowing them to block, hide, unsubscribe people/store, service, shops and posts.

Violations of our community standards have consequences. How these consequences actually look depends on the severity of the violation and the previous behavior of the respective person on our platform.

In this way, we can issue a warning in the event of a first violation. In the event of a follow-up violation, we can restrict the person's posting rights or deactivate the corresponding profile.

If we are of the opinion that there is an understandable danger to life and limb or an immediate danger to public or state/government safety, we reserve the right to inform the law enforcement authorities.

Violence and criminal behavior

We always pay attention to the language and context, Photo, Video, Product, Hate Speech, Nudity as far as possible in order to distinguish loose statements from content, that pose a credible threat to Religious, State, Public or Personal security.

focuses on People organizations that engage in violence against government or military agencies, but generally do not target the civilian population. We call these “violent non-state actors”. We are removing all content support and representation of these organizations, their leaders and well-known members. We remove any promotion of the violent activities of these groups

To prevent potential harm to the other people with the Criminal Behavior or Violence in the offline world that may be related to content on You-Kitchen. people often express their contempt, disregard or rejection by threats or calls for violence that are joking and not meant seriously, we remove posts that incite or support serious acts of violence.

We remove all dangerous or relevant content, disable accounts, and even work with law enforcement agencies (Police, RAB, PBI, ETC) when we believe there is a real risk of personal injury or an imminent threat to public safety & state.

Regulated content/Goods

For safety reasons and to comply with legal requirements, we forbid people, manufacturers and dealers from attempting to buy, sell or trade drugs, and marijuana, Fire arms or any act as per State Law which indicated as harmful for our society.
